

Financing projects in order to manage stormwater in cities.

Anna Czyżewska

The presentation will feature programmes financing ventures in the area of stormwater management in cities within Operational Programme Infrastructure and Environment 2014-2020 and also national funds of National Fund for Environmental Protection and Water Management.

The presentation will deliver examples of already cofinanced investments as well as the ones being planned.